NOTICE

The following report is designated as the Basic Report for this installation:

CIA/IAD. PIR 75023, Nan-ching Chemical Fertilizer Plant, Nan-ching China August 1966, TCS 4191/66 (TOP SECRET RUFF)

The title in the Data Block is correct; that in the referenced report is in error.

BASIC DESCRIPTION

This plant is complete and there has been no construction since [REDACTED] the date of the latest photography used in the referenced report. The urea-associated production buildings have now been identified as possible ammonium bicarbonate and ammonium carbonate production facilities. The presence of barges at the piers and atmospheric emissions coming from the plant on the [REDACTED] photography indicated that the plant was operating.
